Here is a unique opportunity to volunteer in the community and explore Clough Island in the St. Louis River Estuary! We will meet at Spirit Lake Marina at 9:30am and travel to the island by boat (bring your own, or access a free program canoe) to spend a ½ day hand-pulling small invasive Buckthorn plants in support of a major habitat restoration effort. We'll make some time to take in the view and get to know the unique ecology of the island up close and personal. Please dress for the weather, wear sturdy footwear and long sleeves.
